

Council Chambers-City Council
City Hall, City of Lodi
Friday, August 22nd, 1930

Pursuant to adjournment taken from the regular meeting of August 18th., the City Council of the City of Lodi met in adjourned regular session at 8.5 o'clock P.M. on the date first hereinabove written, Councilmen Keagle, Roach, Weihe and Spooner present, Councilman Steele absent.

The Council was addressed by representatives of the local insurance exchange in regard to the award of insurance of the City to cover its liability occasioned by the use of vehicles. The matter of award was laid over until the Council should consider the matter in executive session.

At the order of the Mayor, the City Council was resolved into Committee of the Whole and the room cleared.

On return to open session, award of the City Vehicle Liability Insurance was made to the local exchange through Mr J. S. Montgomery, coverage to be placed with the Prudential Indemnity Company providing the form of policy was acceptable to the Council and its attorney.

The annual budget providing revenue for the ensuing year was accepted with minor changes and the tax rate for 1930-31 fixed by the introduction of :-

ORDINANCE NO. 178
AN ORDINANCE LEVYING TAXES IN THE YEAR 1930 FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1., 1931

on motion of Councilman Weihe, Roach second and the said Ordinance No. 178 was ordered introduced and laid over for the statutory period of not less than five days by the following vote :

AYES, Councilmen, Weihe, Roach, Keagle and Spooner.
NOES, Councilmen, None. ABSENT, Councilman Steele.

It was ordered that the rates of pay and hours of labor in the street department take effect September 1st; that is, the laborers formerly employed at 50¢ per hour now be paid at the rate of $1.00.00 per month, likewise, the man formerly receiving 62½¢ per hour be put on the same basis as other laborers in this department.

It was ordered that the sum of $900 allotted in the budget for care of street trees be transferred to the unbudgeted reserve for emergencies as this work is to be done with the present laborers in the street department.

The Council adjourned at 7.47 P.M. to meet again on September 2nd., 1930, the date of the next regular meeting.

Attest:

J. F. BLAKELY, City Clerk.

The foregoing minutes read and approved without correction at a regular meeting of the City Council held September 2., 1930.

Mayor of the City of Lodi
